

STAYING SAFE AROUND STRANGERS

A social story for students with autism spectrum disorders.

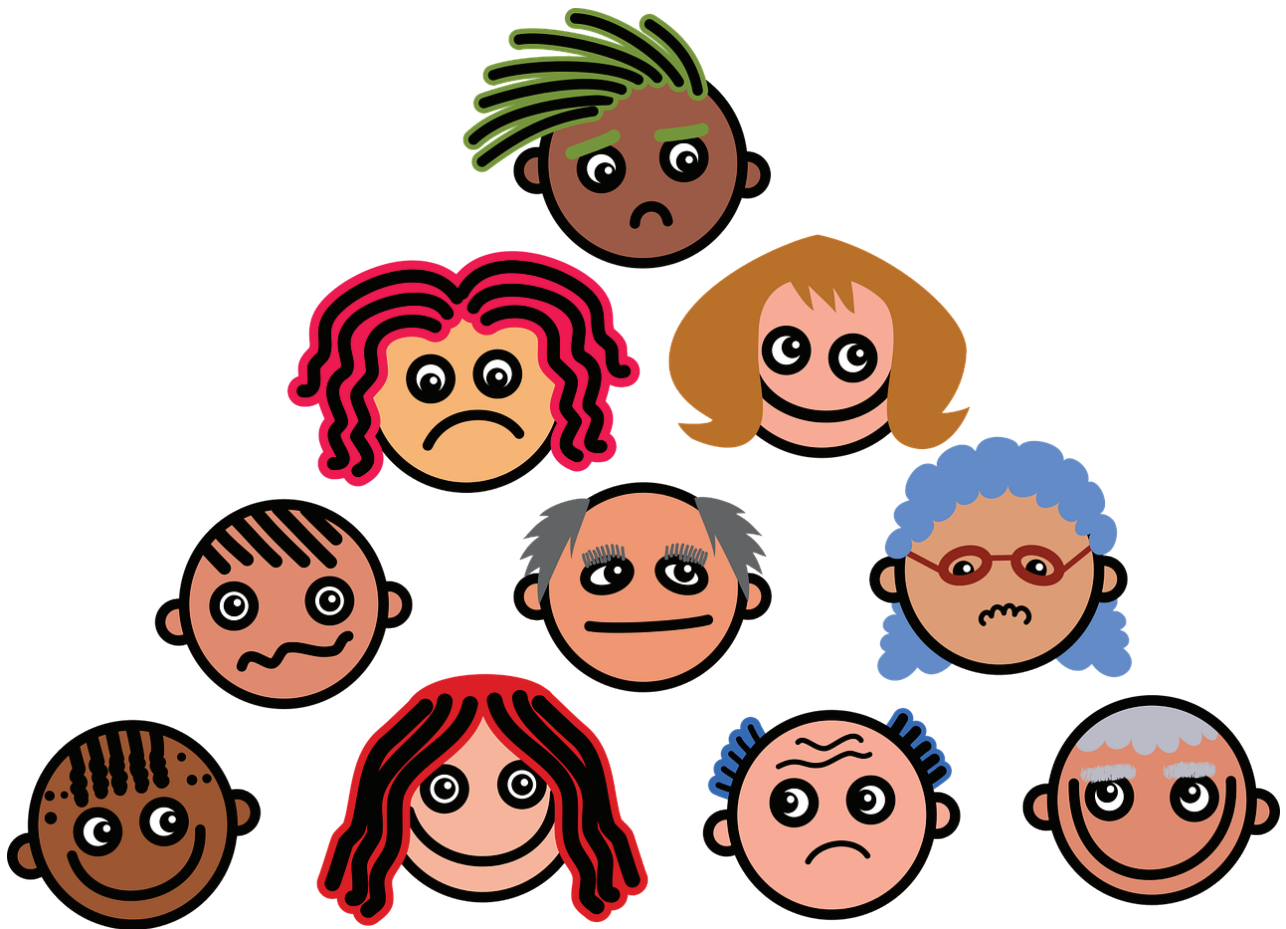

IF I NEED HELP

If I am lost or if I need help, I may have to talk to a stranger.

WHAT IS A STRANGER?

A stranger is someone I don't know. They can be men or women. They can be nice or mean.

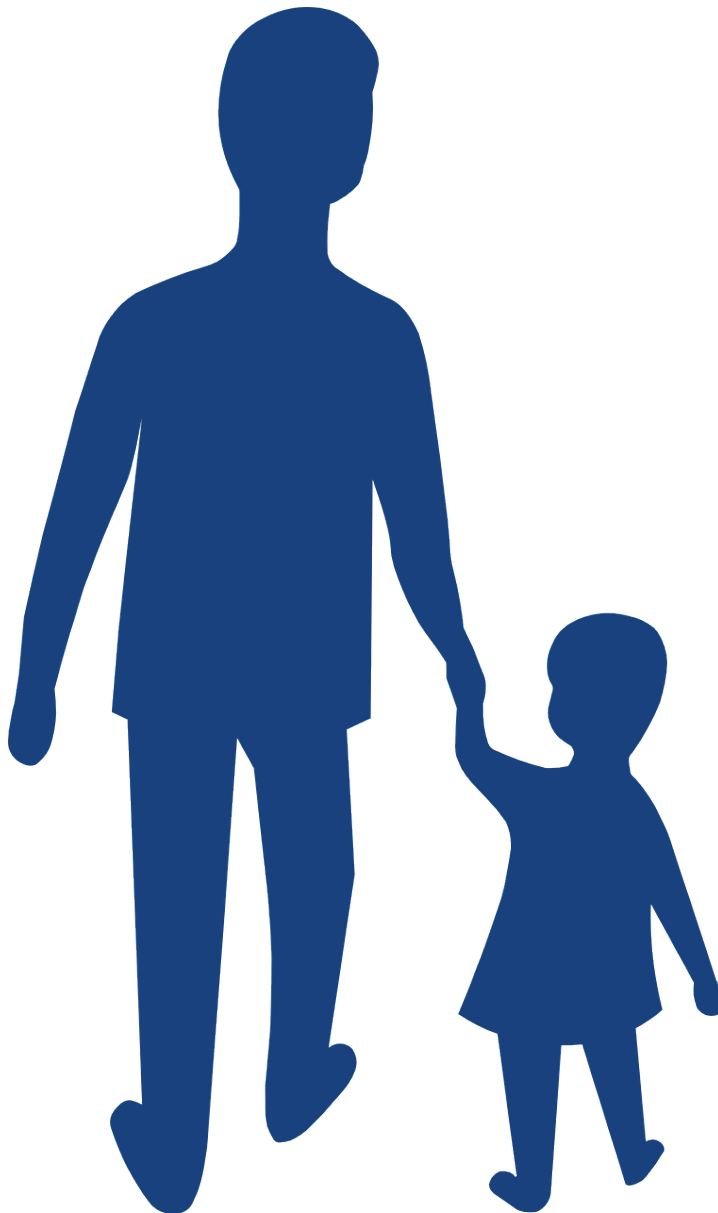

WHAT IS A STRANGER?

There are some strangers that are safe to talk to. It is important for me to learn which strangers are safe and which ones are not.

SAFE STRANGERS

A family, or a mom or dad with a child, can be safe strangers for me to talk to.

SAFE STRANGERS

A police officer is a safe stranger for me to talk to.

Staying safe
around strangers
asdfirstresponders.ca

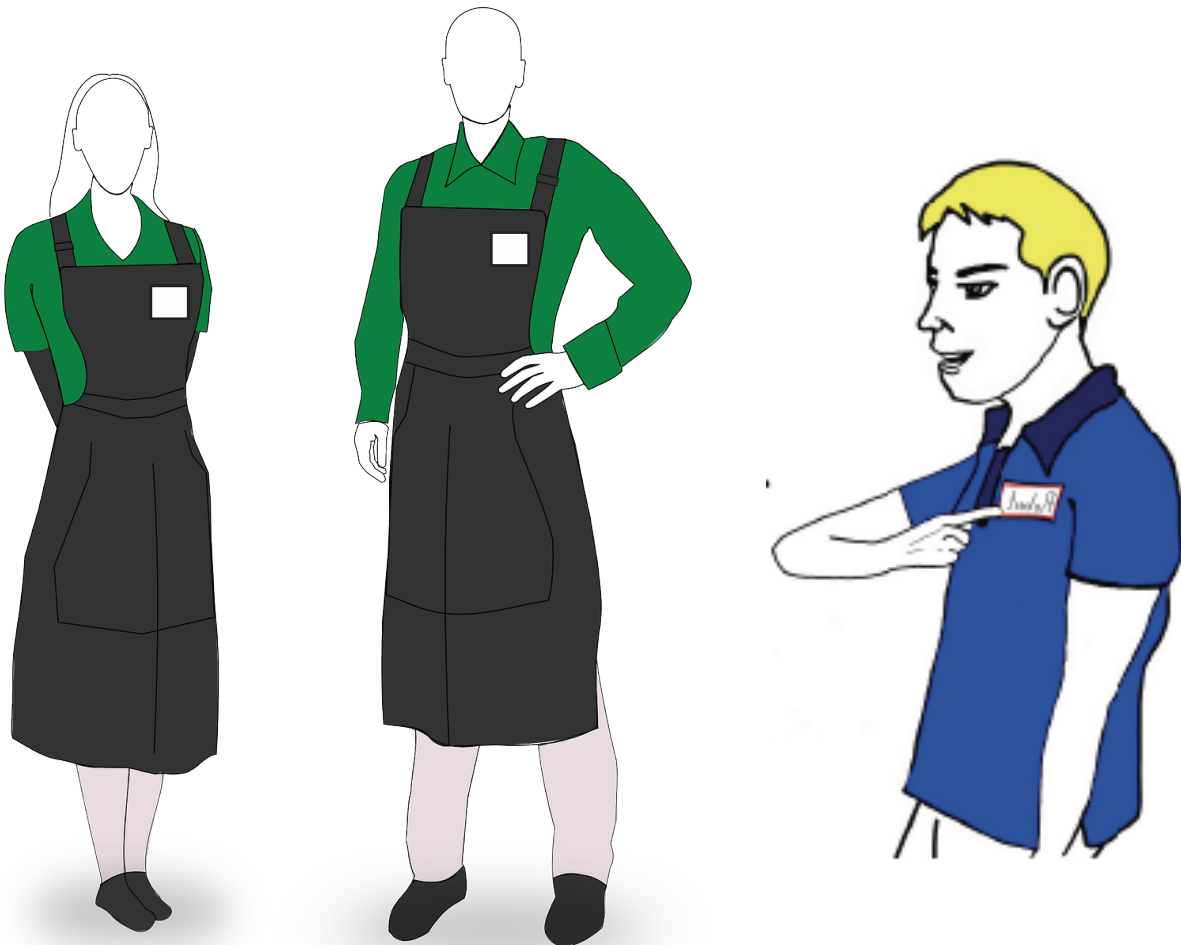

SAFE STRANGERS

A firefighter is a safe stranger for me to talk to.

SAFE STRANGERS

Someone wearing a uniform or a nametag can be a safe stranger for me to talk to.

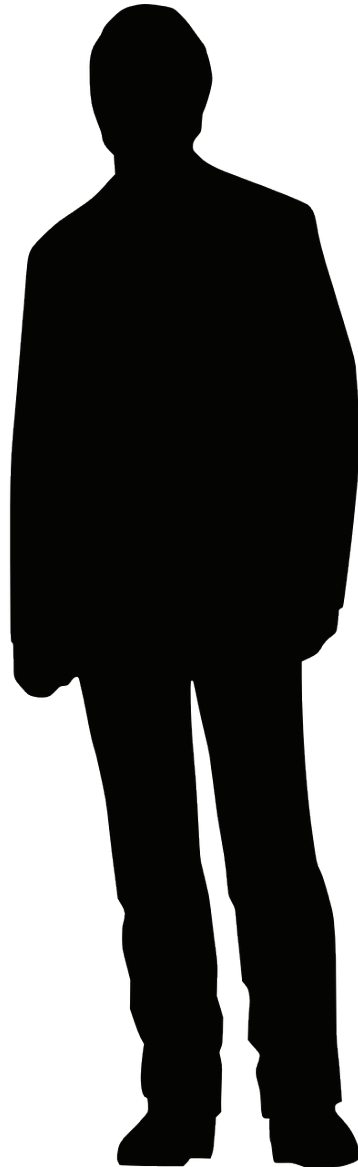

UNSAFE STRANGERS

Someone who asks me to leave with them or who tries to give me something is not a safe stranger.

UNSAFE STRANGERS

Someone who tries to tell me a secret or who makes me feel uncomfortable is not a safe stranger.

IF I HAVE QUESTIONS

If I have questions about safe and unsafe strangers, I can talk to my parents or my teachers.

Staying safe
around strangers
asdfirstresponders.ca

For more educational materials as well as information about autism, go to: asdfirstresponders.ca

CENTRE de RESSOURCES et de FORMATION
RESOURCE and TRAINING CENTRE

